

Early Childhood Education (ECE) Instructor Wenatchee Valley College

Wenatchee Valley College is seeking part time faculty to join its Professional Technical Programs, teaching Early Childhood Education courses. The successful candidate will teach a combination of in-person, synchronous online, and hyflex courses.

WVC prepares students in the early childhood education program for careers that focus on children from birth to eight years and their families. This program provides an understanding of a child's social, emotional, physical and cognitive development. It emphasizes practices that are developmentally appropriate and embrace both family and community.

Examples of Duties and Responsibilities:

- Prepare or modify course content including syllabi, presentations and lessons, in accordance with college course outlines.
- Provide appropriately challenging instruction for assigned courses, including preparation for educational activities, evaluation of students' work, and consultations with students to help them realize their full potential as learners
- Maintain accurate class and other records required by the college.
- Give timely feedback and progress reports to students during the quarter and submit final grades at the end of the quarter.
- Maintain office hours.
- Work cooperatively within the department and college community and attend quarterly department meetings.
- Foster a positive working environment that is free from harassment, prejudice and/or bias, and demonstrate a respect for the dignity of everyone.

Desired Qualifications:

- A master's degree in a related field.
- Five or more years of experience in an early childhood classroom setting
- Fluent in English and Spanish, with the ability to deliver coursework and provide academic support bilingually.
- Experience working with tribal communities and Native-serving institutions.
- Successful experience in adult instruction and assessment, especially at the college level.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Experience utilizing a Learning Management System, such as Canvas.
- A demonstrated commitment to promoting equity, diversity, and inclusiveness in an educational environment.

We are looking for enthusiastic instructors who set high expectations but are eager to help students meet those expectations.

Interviews will include a teaching demonstration on a topic selected by the interview committee.

To Apply, Please Submit:

- Cover letter directly addressing your interest and how you meet the qualifications for the position.
- Curriculum Vitae/Resume.
- Copies of your transcripts (unofficial are fine).
